

Time		Speaker
9:00 AM - 10:00 AM	Session 1	Naveen Tipirneni, MD
10:00 AM - 11:00 AM	Session 2	Stanley Blondek, DPM, MD
11:00 AM - 12:00 PM	Session 3	Sev Hrywnak, DPM
2:00 PM - 4:00 PM	Session 4	Stanley Blondek, DPM, MD
		John Wisniewski
		Scott Becker J.D.
		Sev Hrywnak, DPM
		Allen Stein J.D.
		Stephanie Crawford
		Matt O'Shea
		Eugene Clark

Topic
Post-Operative Pain Management
Update on Pediatric and Adult Vaccines
Genetics in Medicine: Telomeres, Aging and Disease
The Economics of Medicine Going Forward

Learning Objectives

Describe an assessment of pain and function. Establishing a pain contract with patients and the appropriate use of narcotics. Understand the pharmacology of opiates, non-narcotic analgesics, and NSAIDs used in post-operative pain management.

Discuss the purpose of vaccines and their effectiveness. Learn the desired characteristics of a vaccine. Learn the advantages and disadvantages of immunization.

Understand the importance of telomeres. Understand the primary function of telomeres. Learn the newest approaches in telomere health.

Understanding Medicare changes 2025. Learning about population health management. Learning about bundled payment reimbursement. Understanding the new healthcare models